

THE HOUSING BLAME GAME: FUN FOR THE WHOLE COMMUNITY!

If the residence halls didn't cost so much, I could live on campus and not in this dump. Then, I might actually give a damn about upkeep.

If we received more support from the government, college wouldn't cost so much.

If students were forced to live on campus, there would be fewer parties and lesser disturbances to the community. N-I-M-B-Y!

If citizens would converse about their respective needs, a solution can be found.
